

FOR THE BEST YEAR of YOUR LIFE

+... SERVING OTHERS

The American National Red Cross
Needs Qualified Young Women
Who Are Willing To Serve
One Year Overseas
in South Vietnam or Korea

The Job Is Very Special

You will be part of a dynamic program to help maintain the high morale of American servicemen. You will work with young women in planning and presenting group recreation activities which provide fun and relaxation for the men.

As a clubmobile worker, you will be assigned to a military command covering a designated area. You will live and work in a group of five to ten members under peer leadership of a unit director.

Basically, the job is clubmobile, or mobile, recreation, but at certain locations in Vietnam you also help operate recreation centers.

It is the kind of job with special appeal — the challenge of one year in another part of the world, working along with our American servicemen.

The Work Is Rewarding

Are you creative? Could you develop an interesting program on travel, holidays, sports, music, or current events?

Ideas for programs include a wide variety of topics and may be presented as quizzes, stunts, games of all types, puzzles, skits, and amateur dramatics.

In teams of two, staff present hour-long participation type programs in messhalls and day rooms and even outdoors. An average of four or five different military units are visited each day.

Teams travel to distant military units by helicopter, jeep, boat, and plane, in accordance with military security regulations.

Training Is of the Best

Upon appointment, you will participate in orientation in Washington, D.C., before departing overseas. On-the-job training continues in weekly staff meetings and workshops.

You will work closely with experienced supervisory staff who are responsible for personnel and program effectiveness.

Yours will be a year of personal growth and development of leadership potential... of opportunity to learn program planning techniques... of practical experience in group work.

Most of all, you will learn much about yourself and others.

Sometimes just listening is part of our job

There Are Basic Qualifications

To qualify, you must be—

- Single, 21-24 years of age
- In good health
- A graduate of a four-year college
- A U.S. citizen free to serve overseas

But that's not all.

The job requires considerable ingenuity and a capacity for hard work under far less than ideal conditions.

It calls for endless energy, patience, and understanding.

It demands a genuine desire to help others.

It will necessitate full use of the skills you have gained through participation in college activities and camp or community center work.

We adjust our programs to all kinds of situations

THERE ARE BENEFITS TOO

Personnel assigned are salaried and are provided benefits including leave, group insurance, social security, and a special allowance while overseas in Vietnam or Korea. You will be scheduled for regular leave periods during the year, contingent on operations, so that you may travel to other interesting places in that part of the world. On completion of the 1-year tour overseas, many staff members are recommended for other positions in Red Cross.

THE MISSION OF THE RED CROSS

The American Red Cross is the instrument chosen by the Congress to help carry out the obligations assumed by the United States under certain international treaties known as the Geneva or Red Cross Conventions. Specifically, its Congressional charter imposes on the American Red Cross the duties to act as the medium of voluntary relief and communication between the American people and their armed forces, and to carry on a system of national and international relief to prevent and mitigate suffering caused by disasters.

All the activities of the American Red Cross and its chapters support these duties.

Nationally and locally the American Red Cross is governed by volunteers, most of its duties are performed by volunteers and it is financed by voluntary contributions.

The American Red Cross center/clubmobile program operates in South Vietnam and Korea at the request of the U.S. Department of Defense.

YOU ARE THERE BECAUSE OUR SERVICEMEN ARE THERE

Please send me an application for a position in the center/clubmobile program of the American National Red Cross (an equal opportunity employer).
