Summary

Annual Report of 22/400V Group Chapter.

- The table within the report had a meeting every 10 days, and the chapter members met once every month.
- The Chapter Committee was relatively successful in controlling the thoughts of the group chapter members and in the motivation of the children.
- The leadership, although improved, was still rather poor. The execution of the chapter resolutions needed improvement.
- The members were scared by the fierce fighting and tried to move to another area for safety. Some became universalized and pessimistic.
- The members of the chapter were fairly enthusiastic at the beginning of the campaign (operation) movement, but their enthusiasm waned rapidly.

The report ends with a promise by the Group Chapter Committee to strictly adhere to the Party policy line and try hard to better perform their duties.
